

LORD'S DAY OF CELEBRATION

September 24, 2017

In preparation for worship, please take time to silence all electronic devices, and quiet our thoughts, so that we all may focus our hearts and minds on the Lord.

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, you are the giver of life, the source of living waters. In the words of the prophet, we confess that we have dug our own wells, that do not hold water. We have sought our own kingdom, instead of yours. Too often, we have yielded to fear, instead of reaching out to others. Please forgive us and cleanse us. Thank you for your scandalous love that took our place on the cross. Fill us with the power of the Holy Spirit to serve others, and to be bold and loving witnesses for you. In Jesus' Name. Amen.

9:00am Isabel Lally
10:45am John Furlong

The altar flowers today are given to the glory of God by Joyce Nicolai, in loving memory of her dad, Roy C. Brinton.

CDs of today's sermon are available in the Chapel within 15 minutes after the service. Previous Sundays' sermons are available by date in the bin on the small table. Sermons are also available online at our website www.narberthpres.org or podcast through iTunes.

New Explorers' Class starts TODAY Sept 24. More details on page Open prayer group – Sunday mornings at 8:00am (Pastor Steve's office).

Anyone is welcome to come any time between 8 and 9am to pray for the worship service, the preacher, the worship team, the hearts of people coming to worship, and the ministry of the Holy Spirit, guiding us individually and together as a church.

Prayer for Healing (Pastor Steve's Office)

Sunday mornings, 10:15-10:45am, prayer for healing is offered in a confidential, quiet and welcoming environment.

Assignment for this week:

- Monday through Friday, read one chapter per day in the Book of Acts.
- Saturday, or any days you are led, meditate more deeply on next week's passage, Acts 1:9-14
Sermon: "Are We Preparing For Spiritual Awakening?"

Guidelines for reading Acts:

"The key to your reading of Acts is to recognize the "movement" of the gospel from Jerusalem to Rome, narrated in six parts (panels) and signaled by Luke's little summary statements in 6:7; 9:31; 12:24; 16:5; and 19:20. In each case the narrative seems to pause for a moment before it takes off in a new direction - sometimes geographically, sometimes ethnically, and sometimes both." (Gordon Fee, How To Read The Bible Book By Book).

Luke wants us to read Acts as "a play in which we are invited to become actors ourselves. The stage opens up and we discover we're in the middle of the action. That is part of the point of the "ending", which isn't really an ending: the story continues, and we are part of it." Acts 29! "It is a play in which the only true acting is what happens when the spirit of the playwright himself takes charge." (NT Wright, Bible Study Guide on Acts and Acts For Everyone).

Special Offering for Hurricane Harvey Disaster Relief

Our prayers are with those who have lost loved ones, been displaced, or sustained property damage due to Hurricane Harvey. The destruction has been devastating and the needs are great. For the next several weeks, we will be receiving a special offering for disaster relief to be sent through The Salvation Army. The Salvation Army has volunteer teams and mobile feeding units (canteens) in the region or in route to provide immediate assistance, and will remain in the communities impacted by the hurricane to support long-term disaster recovery efforts and provide ongoing assistance to those in need.

To give:

Sunday morning offering: Please make your checks out to NPC and note Hurricane Harvey in the memo section, & put it in the offering plate.

By text: Txt the amount of your gift and keyword Harvey to 610-624-4831. Example: $25 Harvey Online: Visit narberthpres.org/give and select Harvey as the fund.

Through last Sunday, your gifts for Hurricane Harvey relief in Texas totaled approximately $5,000. Thank you for your generosity; this offering will continue to be received for the next several weeks. With restoration efforts now underway in two locations - Texas and Florida - the Session has determined to match the Hurricane Harvey gifts with an equal amount drawn from our savings, up to a sizable cap, for use in Florida by the Salvation Army in the aftermath of Hurricane Irma. Your gifts matter to God and help many people, and we encourage your continued generosity.

6:45-8:00pm Adult Classes

- Making Room for God: Living by the Rhythms of Grace --learning more about keeping company with Jesus every day in ways that transform us. If you long for something more, something different, something deeper, something that connects the presence of God to the changes you crave, this class will provide some of the means. From the beginning the church linked the desire for more of God to intentional practices, relationships and experiences that gave people space in their lives to keep company with Jesus. Discipleship and spiritual disciplines complement each other. Come and learn. Led by Dave Fraser Location: Chapel
- Learning To Love The Psalms
Often referred to as the "anatomy of the soul," the Psalms have long served as the praise and prayer book for the people of God. The Psalms are written, not as theological pronouncements from on high, but more like personal prayer in the form of poetry, or like reading someone's spiritual journal. The Psalms not only teach us, but give voice to our faith and doubts, our deepest feelings. The rich variety of the Psalms calls us back to the centrality of worship, and the rediscovery of God's greatness and goodness. Each class includes a brief video message, followed by discussion. Come and be refreshed in the presence of God
Led by Norm Johanson Location: Parlor

- Andy Crouch will be the keynote speaker for the conference. - † Small Groups, Deacons, Elders, Band, Youth Group, Staff, Individuals! The Fellowship Café needs YOU! As we gear up for an exciting season of Wednesday Night learning opportunities, we want to continue our tradition of providing a meal for everyone at 5:45pm. Dee Knight has stepped away from her apron after many years of savory service in the kitchen, and we have been rethinking the meal – simplifying it so that we all are fed: around the tables in the gym, and in the classes upstairs. We have a willing leader/point person. We need YOU to join a once-a-month team to help with the simple preparation, serving, and clean-up.
- Our goal is to have everyone fed and on their way out of the Gym by 6:45pm, and the clean-up crew on their way by 7:00pm. Please sign-up in the Chapel, and if you want to talk about the possibilities (or your hesitations), contact Debbie Watson at dwatson@narberthpres.org or 610-664-4880 (x114).
- † New Explorers’ Class:
- A New 6-week Explorers’ Class starts today, Sunday, September 24 at 12:15-2:30pm, led by Pastor Steve and Debbie. Lunch and childcare provided.
- The Explorers’ Class is designed for newcomers and provides a warm, welcoming atmosphere for discussing our relationship with Christ, opportunities and mission of NPC, and what it means to be Presbyterian Christians. Please sign in Chapel.

Thursday evenings 8-weeks: Sept. 28th-Nov 16th 7:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Many Christians long for a closer walk and relationship with Jesus, and often find that unforgiveness, a lack of repentance, and other physical, emotional or spiritual issues stand in the way. Unbound prayer leads people lovingly and gently on a journey to freedom from issues that stand between them and a fuller walk with God. Join us on Thursday evenings for 8 weeks to learn about and practice the Unbound prayer model. Thousands of Christians around the world have found that Unbound prayer is an extraordinary gift from God, providing deliverance from issues that have plagued them for years, and bringing new vibrancy to their spiritual lives

Led by Dana Kaminstein and Gene McGee, Location: Parlor

Each week someone from the congregation blesses us by reading the first scripture portion for the day. We are compiling a Winter/Spring roster of people for the two services, and would be happy to have you read if you are at least 7 years old and are willing to speak a little more slowly than you probably do otherwise! Please sign up in the Chapel, and leave your e-mail so that we can get the "script" to you the Friday or Saturday before you read.

† You can do something to restore the lives of victims of human trafficking here in Pennsylvania.

- † Open Mic Night at NPC for All Ages
On Sunday, Oct. 15th from 7:00 to 8:30pm NPC is hosting our first Open Mic Night! Our goals for the evening are as follow: to celebrate the talent within our own church family and friends; to raise funds for the Deacons' Assistance Fund and their ministry in our community, and to simply enjoy an all-church evening together! Bring a dessert to share – we'll provide cold drinks and coffee. This event is open to everyone, so why not invite a friend or two? There is no charge to attend, or perform. Donations for the Deacons' Assistance Fund will be gratefully accepted.
So, if you are musical, have written poetry, want to tell a funny story, or just want to come and enjoy the entertainment of other people performing for you, this evening is for you. To attend or perform, please sign up, by e-mailing John Chaffee at jchaffee@narberthpres.org.
- † Sunday Morning Curbside Cafe - Do you wish to share Christ's blessings with others more boldly? Join us in stepping outside the walls of the church and greeting our neighbors and passers-by with Christ's love through free coffee, goodies, a friendly conversation, and prayer. And you will not be doing it alone. If such a desire is "percolating" in your spirit, contact Debbie Watson or email Clara Louie at claralouie@yahoo.com.
- † Director of Children's Ministry Update
As Pastor Terry prepares for retirement at the end of December, the Personnel Committee has been in full swing searching for our next amazing ministry leader. So far we have held three focus groups with parents and staff and posted the position on several national job boards. We are finalizing the search team to interview candidates. If you know our next amazing ministry leader, please tell Linda Behmke at lrbehmke@yahoo.com.
- † Stop by the Resource Table, located in the chapel area, and see new books for all members for the family.
- † Wednesday Supper menu this week: Potato Bar, salad, fruit, dessert

Acts 1:1-8 In my former book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach ²until the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. ³After his suffering, he presented himself to them and gave many convincing proofs that he was alive. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. ⁴On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: “Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. ⁵For John baptized with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.” ⁶Then they gathered around him and asked him, “Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?” ⁷He said to them: “It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.”

Application Questions - for individuals or small groups:

- What is a witness? What are the points of comparison between a legal understanding of witness and a follower of Christ?
- What has been the most effective kind of witness you have observed or received from others?
- How would you most like to grow as a witness?
- How is God calling us at NPC to be witnesses of Christ in our community?
- What do you think Jesus meant by “power?” What is its purpose?
- How have you experienced the Holy Spirit? How would you describe that experience or its fruit? What can we do to receive more of the power of the Spirit?
- How would you evaluate the boldness of your faith? Do you desire to become more bold, and if so, what steps could you or we as a church take?
- What can we learn about witness from the progression of the gospel from Jerusalem to Samaria to the ends of the earth?
- Where in your life is your positive witness for Christ most needed? Where might God be calling you to step out with greater faith and love?
