Call to Worship

From Psalm 40

The Lacey Family

Happy are those who make the LORD their trust

Who do not turn to the proud,

To those who go astray after false gods.

You have multiplied, O LORD my God, your wondrous deeds and your thoughts toward us;

None can compare with you.

Were I to proclaim and tell of them, they would be more than can be counted.

Sacrifice and offering you do not desire, but you have given me an open ear...

Then I said "Here I am; in the scroll of the book it is written of me.

I delight to do your will, O my God; your law is within my heart."

Let us worship the LORD our God.

Prayer of Confession

Ann Sattel

Lord God, Your word weighs heavy on our hearts, with our responsibility to forgive.

We confess that we have not always taken on that responsibility, and that even when we have, we have done so imperfectly. Forgive us for the grudges we hold, the hurts we nurture and the bitterness that ensues. Save us from our pettiness and deliver us from judging one another without regard for our own brokenness. Help us to become agents of Your mercy and ambassadors of Your grace, for we ask in Jesus' name.

Amen.

Message

Forgiveness Isn't Optional

Rev. Dr. Ken Green

Sermon Scripture: 1 Timothy 1:12-17 (Responsive)

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence.
But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners—
of whom I am the foremost.

But for that very reason I received mercy,
so that in me, as the foremost,

Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life.

To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible,
the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

Ministry jobs available at NPC: The Session and Personnel Committee are pleased to announce that we have begun to actively recruit for 2 part-time ministry positions. We are looking for a Youth Ministry Leader to lead Sunday morning and Wednesday evening times with our youth as well as to coordinate the Youth Ministry Committee. Additionally, we are seeking a Contemporary Music Coordinator to lead our worship music and coordinate special music opportunities. If you or someone you know might be interested in either of these positions, please check the church website for job descriptions and/or reach out to Linda Behmke, Personnel Committee Chair.

Notes from Justice and Mercy: Ken Eng and his associates are busy educating both returning students and new ones. Most of these classes are being held downtown, near Chinatown. There is an ongoing extension of one SAT Prep class, and a new SAT Prep class beginning on Saturday, January 10th. Other classes will be ESL, two classes for adults, and 2 classes for children. Please thank God for the opportunity to help these students gain skills that could help improve their lives and, even more important, gain an understanding of who they are in Christ. Ken is thankful for the provision of volunteer teachers, which enabled the large number of classes beginning this month. Don't hesitate to contact Ken Eng for more information or to volunteer as a teacher or tutor.

ELDER & DEACON NOMINEES

ELDERS:

Jim Hoffman While I grew up in a Christian home, going away to Messiah College and making friends who were living out their faith in a way I wasn't challenged me and sparked my faith. I've continued to grow and seek to trust Him in every part of my life. Lisa and I came to NPC in 2001, and we've been blessed to be a part of the church and serve in various ways ever since, while raising our sons here. I was not seeking to return to session after serving one term many years ago, but just over a year ago I discerned I needed to be open to serving if called. So, I'm moving forward in faith, with a focus on accountability and transparency within leadership, and to the congregation.

Clara Louie I am a beloved child of God, created through Jesus Christ. I am a sinner made alive with Christ and in Christ through his redemption work on the cross. I am God's masterpiece, created anew in Christ Jesus, so I can do the good things he planned for me to do. I have the constant companionship of the indwelling Holy Spirit, given to me as a comforter and advocate. From the first sense of a Creator God in Catholic school to the recognition of my sins and life's meaninglessness without Christ in college, from foundational discipleship in my first church to being called to seminary, from ministry burnout and to renewal in God's intimate love -- all has been God's grace! I am still weak, but his power is made perfect in weakness, and his grace is sufficient for me, as I yield to his continuous work of formation and re-formation in me. Right now, I am committed to walking with my church family at NPC, as we seek to cooperate with God's shaping and forming us as the body of Christ and to follow him faithfully through this pruning time that he may bear fruit in us and through us.

Ashley Reed I have attended Narberth Pres. For most of my life. I started serving in youth group with service trips to North Dakota. Since then, I have participated in choir and bell choir, I was a Deacon for 2 terms and am currently the church archivist. I am so honored to be nominated as Elder. This is the next chapter in how I will serve my church family. As I have grown up here, so has my desire to serve the Lord and his people.

Andrew Steenhoff I grew up in a Christian home and our family were active members of the Anglican church in South Africa. At the age of 14 years, I gave my life to Christ while attending a Christian rock concert. As a teenager I served as a youth group leader and lay minister in my home church as well as a Christian camp counsellor for Campus Crusade for Christ. Subsequently at medical school I led a men's Bible study group and co-led a campus Christian organization. I've also led home groups at various times over the last 30 years. Our family have been members of NPC for 10 years and our spiritual lives have been enriched by this Christian community. I aspire to be a servant leader with Jesus as my example (Matt 20:28) and look forward to serving the NPC body as an elder.

DEACONS:

Cheryl Gunter The Greek word “diakonos” is translated into “deacon,” or servant. The call of a deacon is thus for both the edification of the church and the edification of others on behalf of the church. The expectations for a deacon, however, are not only acts of service but also attitudes that reflect spiritual development – sincerity, self-examination, stewardship, and sacrifice, to name but a few. I am truly humbled by any opportunity to be the hands and heart of my Savior and Lord Jesus Christ in the world. I am particularly inspired by Matthew 25:35-40. While I am honored to serve in a specific role named in the Bible – deacon – my prayer is that I can share His grace and goodness with the world no matter what my role. I pray that He will use my efforts for His glory. Thanks be to God.

Faithe Arana Hornung I am from Philadelphia and am a graduate of Moore College. My husband, Jim and I have been married for 38 years. We have two adult children, a daughter in law, and a young granddaughter. I have served two terms as a Deacon and only recently stepped down as the Missions Committee Chair. I loves sewing, printing and painting and serve as the bookkeeper for Jim’s business.

Gaby Lubchuk My maternal grandmother was a beautiful woman, and as much a woman of God as one could be without really having a relationship with the Lord. My family was Catholic, and she was the one who took me to mass every Sunday. I loved it when we went to masses that were said in Latin, and I "felt" the messages even though I didn't understand the words. I believe I have always "believed." When I was about 50, I took an altar call at an Assemblies of God church, heard for the first time about having a relationship with Jesus and the Holy Spirit, and have not turned back! My faith and relationship with the Lord have deepened, and my journey - with the love and patience of my Narberth church family - although bumpy, becomes more and more focused on the eternal life.

Shiang-Ju Steenhoff Unbeknownst to me, from age 7 when my family and I moved from Taiwan to apartheid South Africa, God protected and provided for me. In times of my greatest need, Jesus was there. This manifested as meeting inspiring, devout Christians at Catholic elementary school, then later, comfort and strength in the last 3 years of high school when my parents returned back to Taiwan at the end of their diplomatic term in South Africa. I was baptized and confirmed at 17. However, it was only 10 years later in Philly, while in the midst of recovery from a perforated appendix with complications, that I truly gave my life to Him. God continues to bless me daily with His love and grace. Over the past few years, I have felt a calling to be His hands and feet. I hope to serve Him and our church family in tangible ways as a deacon.

Please keep the Session in prayer as we interview a Transitional Pastor candidate this Thursday 1/15. We encourage all members to attend the Annual Congregational Meeting TODAY, immediately following worship. We also look forward to resuming our monthly Elder, Deacon, and Staff gathering this Tuesday evening 1/13 as we continue growing together in leadership and fellowship.
