Prayer of Confession

Mark Wenger

Father, we confess today that of the many disciplines of the Christian life, the one we struggle with consistently is prayer. Like the disciples in Gethsemane, we find it hard to pray for even short periods. We want so much to enjoy fellowship with you in prayer, but for some reason it is hard. This morning, we ask you to help us grow in our enjoyment of our living relationship with you through prayer. Amen.

Silent Prayer & Assurance of Pardon

Thank you, Father, you have heard our prayers, you are always listening when we pray, and you love when your children come to you in prayer, whatever the cry of our heart may be. May we grow to love the privilege of prayerful communion with you in as much as you love hearing from us, whether we are near or far from you in our lives. Amen.

PRAYER INFORMATION

Please Remember in Prayer

Missions: The Welcome Church, in Philadelphia, is a church without walls. Pastors Violet Little (a Lutheran) and Schaunel Steinnagel (a Presbyterian) lead the congregation and volunteer clergy, as together they proclaim the hope and love of our gracious God to all people, and especially those experiencing homelessness in the city. Please pray for this congregation to grow strong in the blessing of God, as they seek to share that blessing on the streets and in the parks of Philadelphia in these challenging days of violence and uncertainty.

Notes from Justice and Mercy: Incredible things are happening for the dozens of teens enrolled in SAT Prep classes with Ken Eng and his ministry partners. Underserved students from South Philly, Center City, and Ardmore are not only receiving the academic support they need at no cost, but they are also discovering their true worth. Being a child of God is far more important and enduring than any test score, prestigious college, or high-paying job. New classes will begin in September in the Northeast and downtown. ESL classes are really seeing God at work, too. Please pray that all the instructors and tutors will shine with Christ's love. Contact Ken Eng (k_eng@msn.com) to learn about becoming a tutor.

Parkway Ministry: Jennifer Bonovitz is working at full steam again, loving our neighbors and regularly checking the blue bins outside the Windsor doors. The needs are great. All donations of canned goods, pasta, and toilet paper are greatly appreciated!

WEDNESDAY NIGHT PROGRAMMING

Women at the Well: For centuries, women met daily at neighborhood wells to draw water for their families, meeting a significant physical need. But these wells were also gathering spaces, providing much-needed community and relationship. Join us for scripture, a time of sharing, and prayer led by Lisa Hoffman. This is open to all women as a safe space to gather and encourage one another. It allows us to experience the God who invites us into a process of spiritual transformation. We will meet for 6 weeks. Reach out to Lisa Hoffman or Danielle Kauffman with any questions.

Introduction to Biblical Interpretation: Who wrote the Bible -- human beings or God? Does the Bible contain errors? Who decided to include only these 66 books? What went on between ancient oral traditions and our modern-day Bible? Why are there many versions and translations? How do we bridge the historical, cultural, and linguistic gap between us and the world of the text? Who determines the meaning of the text -- the author or the reader? How about the role of the Holy Spirit? Considering these questions will help us respect the complexity of the Bible, follow sound interpretive guidelines, and deepen our desire to read God's word with curiosity, discernment, and reverence. This class is primarily taught via Zoom, with a viewing option set up at church. Please email Diane (dianegchen@gmail.com) for the Zoom link and/or recording for each class.

Kids Praise! Children (PreK – 5th grade) are encouraged to join the party in the Choir Room. Together we sing, dance, learn a lot about music, and HAVE FUN! We hope to see you there! Please reach out to Danielle with any questions.

Middle School Youth Group: Calling all 6th-8th grade students to join us for an hour of games, bible study, and memorable time together! Invite a friend to join you for a night of fun!
